SPENCER NEWS

Dorothy Hofner of Elyria is a week-end visitor at Mr. and Mrs. Dale Houser's of East Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. Walt Rook and family and Miss Tracie Rook went to Dover Bay Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bowen with Mr. and Mrs. Woods of River Corners went to Columbus to attend the centenary convention there. They started from Spencer the morning of the Lodi robbery and when they reached Sullivan they were halted and held till some one came to identify them, the some one being an old friend of their's, in the person of Ernest Handel, formerly of Spencer.

Excitement is plentiful in and around Spencer this week. Seven airplanes passed over our city flying so low that the hum of their powerful motors were plainly heard, and the planes plainly seen.

The boys who robbed the Lodi stores were also caught just south of town after an exchange of bullets which made things interesting for a while. Oh yes, we are settling down to the old routine, "after the war."

Mr. and Mrs. John Burbage of Bloomville, Ohio, are visiting the latter's parents, at Spencer for a few days.

Little Lester Rugg of Huron is spending his vacation with his aunt Irma at the O. M. H.

Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Snyder were surprised and pleased to see Mrs. Snyder's brother, Hobart, who has just returned from France. He has been gone about a year and is looking fine.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Aldrich and little son Dick are taking a trip up the lakes.

The Ladies of the Macabees held their memorial services last week.

A number of the young people of Spencer attended the Eagles' dance at Wellington last week.

Already the buzz and pop of firecrackers are heard in our town.

Doesn't look as tho this 4th was going to be "safe and sane." What's the matter with stopping the shooting of firecrackers down town, where the horses are frightened into running away, endangering the life of pedestrians.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wolf attended the

OBITUARY

Stella M. Perkins was born in Brunswick township, Jan. 25, 1866. Her father died when she was but nine years of age. She has always lived at home, caring for her mother in her old age, with untiring love and devotion. She leaves three brothers, one sister, two nephews, eight nieces and other relatives and friends to mourn her loss. She died Saturday, June 21st, 1919 and was laid to rest by the side of her sister Mary, in the cemetery at Brunswick Center.

Retail Jewellers' association meeting at Cedar Point last week.

T. J. Curtice spent the week-end with relatives and friends at Genoa and Toledo.

Oil and hay seems to be the chief topic of conversation these days.

Mrs. Clyde Howe has been on the sick list.

Mr. Jno. Wolf is threatened with typhoid fever.

The Princess Stock company is in Spencer for the week.

Mrs. Clyde Keefe and children are in New London for a few days.

The White reunion was held at Geo. Hartman's home on South Main street June 21.

A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Nichols Thursday evening, June 19 at eight o'clock, when their daughter Thelma was united in marriage to Mr. Orson Howe. The home was profusely decorated with roses, ferns, daisies and paper festoons. An altar was made in one corner of the parlor of flowers and ferns, in front of which the young couple stood while the ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Bennett, pastor of the Baptist church.

The bride's dress was of white crepe de chine and she carried a bouquet of white roses. Miss Ada Bennett played the wedding march. Mr. and Mrs. Leon White, relatives of the groom, were attendants and Mrs. Della Boone, aunt of the bride was matron of honor.

After receiving congratulations and best wishes from all present, a buffet luncheon was served. Mr. and Mrs. Howe had their home party in readiness on North Main street and began housekeeping at once. They will be at home to their friends after July 1.

Service at the Baptist church each Sunday; Sunday school at 10, and preaching at 11; evening service held every other Sunday night at 8, alternating with the Methodist services.

Don't Waste Time Plowing
Use Daisy Shields

Save time and labor with these modern cultivator shields. Grow more corn and better corn with less time and less labor. Equip your cultivator with Daisy Revolving Shields and do a better job plowing one-fourth faster. They absolutely prevent clods from falling on the corn no matter how fast the dirt passes right through these shields and covers weeds and grass all around the hills.

Pay For Themselves in Service

Daisy Shields will save you enough in time and labor to pay for themselves several times in one season. They make you money in increased yield due to better cultivation, too.

Come in and see these shields. They're worth your looking over and that's all we ask. Let's show you what they are and how they work. They'll do your cultivator regardless of what make it is and they'll satisfy you in service. See them before you buy.
